VIRGINIA BEACH AND CAPE HENRY

The fame of Atlantic City so long regarded as the finest ocean beach on the Atlantic coast, must be transferred to Virginia Beach and Cape Henry, the beautiful ocean resorts near Norfolk, picturesque spots, which impress all who see them—a magnificent beach, extending for more than three miles along the ocean front. The surf bathing here, which is unsurpassed anywhere on the Atlantic coast, begins earlier and continues later than at the more northern resorts. Here the surf rolls in never-ending waves upon the shore, and the realists, waters, tempered by the warmth of the Gulf Stream, afford excellent bathing eight months in the year, and unless the winter season be unusually severe, salt water bathing may be indulged in during the entire year.

Virginia Beach and Cape Henry enjoy many advantages as desirable places to reside. The proximity of the

Foreign Travelers Comfort

The enjoyment and comfort of foreign travel depend largely upon the ease with which a traveler can pass along his chosen way, and while familiarity with the customs of a country and some knowledge of its language may be aids to that end, the Funds one carries are really the source of all of one's pleasures or the cause of many troubles, inconveniences and delays.

The Best Form of Credit

To avoid the annoyances indicated, traveling funds should be of a kind and form which combine the greatest simplicity, the quickest and best return upon encashment and the largest measure of protection against loss in their varied uses.

Origin and Popularity

The American Express Company claims for its Travelers' Cheque System pre-eminence in all of these features. This system, which speaks for itself in all the principal languages, was originated in 1891, and has the advantage of many years of steadily increasing public patronage, which is the most satisfactory commendation that can be desired.

Wide Availability

The established financial responsibility of the American Express Company, the facility afforded for cashing these Cheques by correspondents in all parts of the world, the ready acceptance in settlement of accounts by hotels generally, by steamship companies, and by storekeepers everywhere in payment for purchases, place these Cheques in a class by themselves and far above any other form of Travelers' Funds, including Bank of England notes.

Convenience to Americans

The American Express Company's Ticket Department, maintained at its London (5 and 6 Haymarket) and Paris (11 Rue Scribe) offices, afford a convenience to Americans traveling abroad which will be appreciated by those who have experienced the difficulties and annoyances of purchasing their tickets at foreign railway stations, where the employees with whom they have to deal are not familiar with the English language.

Great Britain, and the presence of the "freedom" of the garrison, and the "blue-jackets" from the Royal Navy add a variety to the street scenes. The attractions of the social life of Bermuda are also enhanced by the presence of many officers of the two services and their families, and is notably gay and brilliant.

Not the least of Bermuda's advantages is that its hotels offer excellent and ample accommodations. There are in addition to the large hosteleries, many hotels of moderate size, that provide satisfactory service. In every respect Bermuda affords every attraction and advantages desired in a pleasure resort.

BUCKROE BEACH HOTEL.

Under new management, Buckroe Beach Hotel will be opened on June 1, 1911, thoroughly renovated, repainted, repapered and repaired, and ready to receive all who may turn their faces towards the charms of bay breezes and the delights of good surf bathing; the joys of good fishing and good table.

Mr. James Van Allen Bickford, the new manager, hardly needs an introduction in the hotel world, having had large experience in the hotel business. Mr. Bickford successfully managed Buckroe Beach Hotel the years 1902, 1903 and 1904.

Mr. Bickford will have everything under his supervision, and will do all in his power to meet the requirements and the wishes of his guests.

The new bathhouse is the finest in the South, accommodates 1,500 bathers, and is supplied with suits for the bath, the large and the medium, at a moderate price for suit. The bathhouse is equipped with showers and basins.

The dancing pavilion is open each night, free for all who may come to dance the "light fantastic" and with a wonderful orchestra.

All kinds of amusements for all kinds of taste can be had at Buckroe—boating, bathing, dancing, fishing, tennis, golf, baseball, bowling, billiards, pool—and there is the Ferris Wheel, Scenic Railway, merry-go-round, and all things that go with an up-to-date resort that Buckroe Beach is.

Fishing is one of the best features at Buckroe, and to any who this sport appeals to, they would not be better supplied with boat, bait, tackle, and with an experienced fisherman to attend and show where the "biting ground is."

Buckroe Beach is the most fascinating resort from Maine to Florida. It is different from most seaside resorts, having green lawns and shade trees to make it restful to the eye, instead of having to look at the glare of sand dunes and long expanse of sandy beach with nothing to break the monotony.

The children and old folks will enjoy a visit to Buckroe.

Buckroe Beach is only a two-hour ride from Richmond—and by the way,
